

Year 10 Survival Top Tips
Tip 1	Learn and revise vocabulary regularly, approximately 40 words a week
Tip 2	Make the most of opportunities to chat to your pen pal in the target language
Tip 3	Make a list or flashcards of phrases that can be used in varied scenarios
Tip 4	Use apps like Quizlet, Duolingo and Memrise daily!
Tip 5	Watch TV in the language or add target language subtitles

YEAR 11

Where I live

- Home and where things are
- Places in town and local area
- Finding the way and giving directions
- Shopping and returning goods
- Wider world issues and environment

4-day Intensive Study event: the MEP Tourism Project

Term 6

End of Year 10 Exams/HSK 3

- Listening
- Reading
- Speaking (no speaking in HSK 3)
- Writing

Term 5

Term 4

Where I live

- Home and where things are
- Places in town and local area
- Finding the way and giving directions
- Shopping and returning goods
- Wider world issues and environment

Term 3

Media

- Different forms of media
- Celebrities & role models
- Lifestyles

Term 2

Media

- Different forms of media
- Celebrities & role models
- Lifestyles

Leisure

- Review of sports & hobbies
- Sports Centre
- Activities outside school
- Duration of time
- Exercise

Term 1

YEAR 10

SKILLS TAUGHT IN MANDARIN

- 1) READING COMPREHENSION
- 2) LISTENING COMPREHENSION
- 3) GRAMMAR
- 4) SPEAKING AND COMMUNICATION
- 5) WRITTEN EXPRESSION

Mandarin in Year 10:

- ❖ Edexcel 9-1 textbook is used
- ❖ Fortnightly vocab tests on 10 new words (70% pass mark) Bonus marks (retrieval)
- ❖ Character booklets with key vocab (VOCAB TEST) and supplementary vocab (RECOGNITION) to be completed each week
- ❖ Knowledge organisers and booklets to support
- ❖ End of unit assessments are cumulative so that prior learning can be committed to long-term memory and will cover all skills across the year
- ❖ Students have access to Quizlet, Linguagenut and The Chairman's Bao for revision of all skills
- ❖ Understanding and appreciation of Chinese culture and how it compares continues to the UK develops